

COST OF CONFERENCE

(including lunch and refreshments)

Early booking advised

Standard Ticket£135

Early Bird Price (for bookings before 11th May 2017)£120

Limited number of concessions are available to IAAP candidates in training. Concession ticket.....£ 95

HOW TO BOOK

ONLINE

Tickets may be booked by BACS, Credit/Debit card or Paypal at the AJA website: <http://www.jungiananalysts.org.uk/events/who-is-my-jung/>

Or by CHEQUE

Please make cheques payable to 'Association of Jungian Analysts' and post to the address below, including your name and contact details and the names and contact details of others included on this booking.

AJA Conference Administrator, KVT Business Care, Unit 1 Chapelton Lodge, East Winch Road, Blackborough End, King's Lynn, Norfolk PE32 1SF

Enquiries: Val Nurse Tel: 01553 849849

Cancellation Policy

Cancellation received prior to 11th July 2017, 100% refund (minus £10 admin cost).

Cancellation received prior to 11th October 2017, 50% refund (minus £10 admin cost).

No refunds available after 11th October 2017.

Conference Programme Committee

AJA: Ruth Williams (Chair)
BJAA: Emilija Kiehl
IGAP: Penny Boisset
GAP: Pan Lemos
SAP: Warren Colman

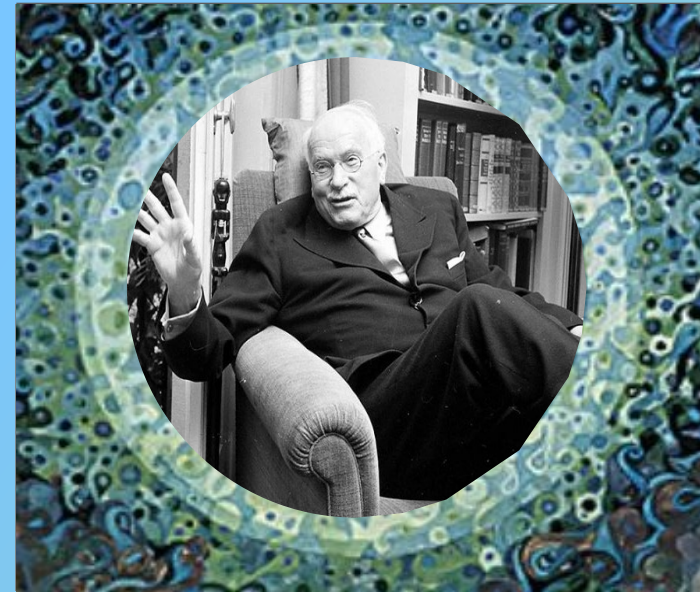

Conference Organising Committee

AJA: Ruth Williams (Chair)
AJA: Lesley Bennett
AJA: Stephen Garratt
AJA: Julia Waterfield

Front Cover: Images courtesy of: Dmitri Kessel (1949)— Carl Jung relaxing at Küssnacht.— one of a series taken for Life magazine. Photo set within detail taken from Image 135, The Red Book (2009) (ed. Shamdasani). London and New York: W.W.Norton and Co .

Association of Jungian Analysts 40th Anniversary 1977—2017

Who is my Jung?

Saturday 11th November 2017

10.00am—5.45pm

(Registration and refreshments from 9.30am)

A major London conference featuring analysts from all the London Jungian Training Societies

Venue:

The British Library Conference Centre
96 Euston Rd, London NW1 2DB

To celebrate the 40th Anniversary of its foundation, the Association of Jungian Analysts is organising a conference whose programme has been devised by all five London Jungian training societies working together.

London is unique in having five societies offering clinical trainings in Jungian analysis, all of whom are UK organisational members of the International Association for Analytical Psychology. This conference is the first to bring together all five societies:

Association of Jungian Analysts (AJA)
British Jungian Analytic Association (BJAA, part of British Psychotherapy Foundation)
Independent Group of Analytical Psychologists (IGAP)
Guild of Analytical Psychologists (GAP)
Society for Analytical Psychology (SAP)

During the conference analysts from all of these societies will share their personal interpretations of ...

Who is my Jung?

Arthur Niesser, Chair of AJA, will open the conference and introduce the keynote speaker, Martin Stone.

The rest of the day will be formed of three panels each of which will address a theme. There will be time for questions during each panel and in the final plenary.

Panel 1: Archetypes, Spirituality, Approaches to the Numinous

Jules Cashford, Warren Colman, Jim Fitzgerald, Ann Shearer

Chair: Emilija Kiehl (Chair of BJAA)

Panel 2: The Analytical Relationship

Dale Mathers, Marilyn Mathew, Helen Morgan

Chair: Pan Lemos (Chair of GAP)

Panel 3: Entering into the World of the Other

Mark Saban, Andrew Samuels, Jan Wiener

Chair: Penny Boisset (Convenor of IGAP)

The Speakers

Jules Cashford (AJA) wrote The Moon, The Myth of the Goddess (with Anne Baring), translated The Homeric Hymns, and has made DVDs on Jan van Eyck.

Warren Colman (SAP) is Consultant Editor of the Journal of Analytical Psychology and has recently published a book on The Emergence of Symbolic Imagination.

Jim Fitzgerald is a Zurich-trained analyst with a private practice in London. He is a member of GAP and IGAP.

Dale Mathers (AJA) is a psychiatrist, humanistic psychotherapist and Jungian Analyst. He teaches in Europe and Russia and writes about meaning, and alchemy.

Marilyn Mathew is a senior member of the BJAA/bpf. She runs Jungian Infant Observation courses, teaches, and works in private practice in south London.

Helen Morgan is a Training Analyst for the BJAA. She is particularly interested in exploring the interface between Jungian analytic thinking and the external world.

Arthur Niesser is Chair of AJA.

Mark Saban is a senior analyst with IGAP. He lectures regularly at the Centre for Psychoanalytic Studies at Essex University.

Andrew Samuels (SAP) is an analyst, professor, activist and writer whose books range from Jung and the Post-Jungians (1985) to A New Therapy for Politics? (2015).

Ann Shearer is a senior analyst with the Independent Group of Analytical Psychologists. Her latest book is Why Don't Psychotherapists Laugh? Enjoyment and the consulting room.

Martin Stone is a supervisor, senior analyst and past Chair of AJA. He has written on splits in Jungian groups, embodied countertransference, frequency and synchronicity.

Jan Wiener is Director of Training at the SAP and previously Vice President of the IAAP. She is author of four books and numerous papers.