Annual Conference and Retreat

"We cannot live in a world that is not our own, in a world that is interpreted for us by others. An interpreted world is not a home. Part of the terror is to take back our own listening, to use our own voice, to see our own light."

The Jungian Odyssey 2018

Since 2006, participants world-wide have acclaimed the Jungian Odyssey—ISAPZURICH's annual spring semester retreat that opens to the general public our post-graduate level program with our faculty and guest scholars. Soul-seekers, life-long learners, professionals looking for continuing education—all are welcome to join and share in the atmosphere of intimate, cross-cultural exchange. Basic knowledge of C.G. Jung's Analytical Psychology could be helpful, but is by no means required. "The earth has a spirit of her own," Jung mused, and elsewhere he called it the genius loci, the spirit of the place. It is the particular genius loci—and the current Zeitgeist—that lead us each year to a new place in Switzerland, inspiring each new conference topic.

ages that ensnare our "listening" but can equally lead us forward, toward the unveiling of our disowned or undiscovered lives and values that are really worth living for. Indeed, Jung holds it to be the task of all tasks to examine one's personal myth, "to accomplish one's destiny," to follow one's personal calling.

Four-star Huus Hotel Gstaad, a recently renovated grand chalet, is widely acclaimed for its spacious playful interiors, creative cuisine, and its embodiment of the very soul of hospitality. All bedrooms are double-sized, have balconies with panoramic views, and are equipped with a Grand Lit bed, shower, telephone, television, balcony—and a pad tablet with free online access to newspapers in many languages. Free WiFi is available throughout the hotel. Special amenities (use at no cost): swimming pool, sauna, Turkish bath, whirlpool, fitness room, backpacks, binoculars, walking sticks, hiking boots, mountain bikes, and much more!

Nestled in the Bernese Alps and girded by outdoor terraces, gardens, forests, Huus Hotel offers breath-taking views of commanding alpine peaks. Close below lies the enchanting village center of Saanen. Saanen, "the historical heart of the Saanenland," was first chronicled in 1228, the year when the village Church of St. Mauritius was built. Picturesque chalets lining the narrow roads date as far back as the 15th century. The region is famously wed to traditional down-to-earth alpine life, evidenced among other ways by the 7000 cows—one per resident! But Saanen itself also takes pride in its participation in the annual music festival founded in 1957 by its honorary citizen, the great violinist Yehudi Menuhin, who lived for over forty years in near-by Gstaad. The village maintains as well a local history museum, the Menuhin Center, and a stretch of the spiritual Menuhin Philosopher's Trail. Little wonder that Saanen counts among Switzerland's most cherished national heritage sites!

The Labyrinth of Identity

The Jungian Odyssey 2018 invites your immersion in the landscape and spirit of Gstaad-Saanen, a place of elemental beauty—and a perfect setting for your intensive exploration of identity and unlived life. A look backward calls us to unveil "the silent facts" and "their extremely contagious effect" (Jung, CW17, §153). Who are we, as individuals? In what ways are we shaped by conscious or unconscious ideas about nationality, religion, education, family, marriage, profession, race, sexuality, or the like? How much of it do we want to "own"? "An interpreted world," says the 12th century mystic Hildegard of Bingen, "is not home. Part of the terror is to take back our own listening, to use our own voice, to see our own light." In the coming program, we hope to discern with you some of the archetypal im-

Special Events and Excursions

Sat May 26 ca. 12 noon | Arrival Toast

Included • Package Types 1, 2, 3

On arrival, enjoy a welcome drink courtesy of Huus Hotel and listen to a history told by the owner, Herr Weilguni. After lunch we check into our rooms, and rest a bit before the formal welcome and the keynote address, beginning at 16:00.

Sat May 26, 20:00 – 21:30 | Piano with Robert Ingram

Included • All Packages

After dinner join us around the piano with Jungian analyst Robert Ingram, who will cook up for us his unique mélange of blues and gospel, country and R&B, classical and ragtime, soul and jazz. Robert has performed his particular improvisational music in a variety of settings, from churches to bars, in concert halls and prisons, festivals and private parties, in the spotlight and in background shadows. Simply described as a piano man, Robert is a natural! He will be with us for the whole Odyssey week, so we can expect to hear strains of his music at unexpected times!

Sun May 27, 20:00 – 21:30 | Menuhin: A Family Portrait

Included • Package Types 1, 2, 3

Tony Palmer's documentary (1991/2010), a psychological profile, offers intimate "material not seen previously . . . , to create this heart-rending and multi-award winning film. It include[s] all the members of Menuhin's family living at the time, who struggle to piece together what had really happened to the son of Russian/Tartar parents who was defiantly named Yehudi – 'the Jew'" (Amazon, Product Description). This is a glimpse into shadowy family dysfunction and pain that contributed to the shaping of the child prodigy into the enigmatic man and one of the world's greatest violinists and conductors, musical ambassadors, and defenders of social justice.

Tues May 29, 15:30 – 17:30 | Guided Tour of Saanen

Opt-in • Package Types 1, 2, 3 • CHF 25.00

Our guided walking tour leads us through the winding roads of Saanen, the charming village and jewel that first entered the historical record in 1228. We will learn about the still standing medieval buildings and visit the Menuhin Center. The finale will be an organ recital in the Mauritius Church—itsself first officially mentioned in 1228—and where Menuhin conducted countless concerts. As we are on our own for dinner, we suggest that you dine in Saanen, and walk directly to the play at the historical Hotel Landhaus.

Tues May 29, 20:00 – 22:30 | The Analyst and the Rabbi

Opt-in • All Packages • Early rate: CHF 40.00

This original play was written in 2017 by Henry Abramovitch and Murray Stein, with music composed by Barbara Miller. The cast members are Paul Brutsche (C.G. Jung), John Hill (Rabbi Leo Baeck), and Dariane Pictet (Woman). The play dramatizes an historical, tense confrontation between Jung and Baeck at the Zürich hotel Savoy Baur en Ville in early October 1946. Reconciliation begins when a gentle but firm woman guides the unveiling of shadows and guilt, and acceptance of responsibility. The drama as such lays bare a pair of painfully clashing identities and imagines a mysterious feminine force to enable transcendence of the conflict. The play will be staged in the beautifully restored grand hall of Hotel Landhaus in Saanen, originally built in 1577. Followed by discussion and wine with the performers. Return shuttle to Huus is included for Package Types 1, 2, 3.

Thurs May 31, 12:30 – 17:00 | Picnic at Lake Lauenen

Opt-in • Package Types 1, 2, 3 • CHF 70.00

Our excursion to this glorious nature preserve starts with a bus to Launen, where we will board old-time horse-drawn carriages for a romantic ride and picnic around the lake. There will be ample time to stroll and find picnic spots (box lunch included), and perhaps enjoy a drink at the lakeside restaurant. Chartered bus return to Huus Hotel or Gstaad, for dinner on your own.

Fri June 1, 18:30 | Gala Closing

Included • Package Types 1, 2, 3

Our Gala Closing begins with a wine reception and Robert Ingram cooking on the piano. We will progress to a banquet featuring a four-course gourmet dinner (beverages excluded). After dinner we will abscond into Huus's labyrinthine depths, entering the "Stollen," the underground caves where dessert, a bar, music, and the chance to dance will be awaiting us.

Who are We and How Do We Know It? (L)
In her keynote address, Patricia Berry addresses the notion of identity itself. Where did the idea of "identity" come from, and how did it develop to where we are today? At what point does identity slide into identifications? To what extent does the idea of identity help or confuse our Jungian ideas of individuation?

	9:00-10:15 Patricia Berry, PhD The Unlived Life (L) Certainly there are moments in life when we find ourselves, as Hamlet put it, experiencing a “divinity that shapes our ends, rough-hew them how we will.” How do we get to this sense? This morning we will turn primarily to dreams to explore how our methodologies and attitudes regarding dream work interfaces with our ideas of the unlived life, how the psyche operates, and connects with the labyrinthine ways of individuation.

If you do not acknowledge your yearning, then you . . . go on foreign ways that others have indicated to you. So you do not live your life but an alien one. But who should live your life if you do not live it? To live oneself means: to be one's own task. Never say that it is a pleasure to live oneself. It will be no joy but a long suffering [Y]ou do not begin with the best and the highest, but with the worst and the deepest. Therefore say that you are reluctant to live yourself. “Individuation is the accomplishment through life. For instance, say a cell begins to divide itself and to differentiate and develop into certain plant or a certain animal; that is the process of individuation. It is that one becomes what one is, that one accomplishes one’s destiny, all the determinations that are given in the form of the germ; it is the unfolding of the germ. . . . Interlude • May 23–25, 2018

Consider coming early to Zürich, to attend the Interlude at ISAP on your way to the Odyssey! This is a unique chance to experience our on-campus life and historically protected home, the erstwhile post office built in 1911, with an Art Nouveau design that—aptly for us—displays a painting of the messenger god Hermes! At this occasion you are welcome to:

- Join our spring semester excursion
Jung's Historical Küsnacht Home
- Attend a 2-day academic program of lectures with light lunch (package discount)
- Celebrate our newest graduates
at our ceremony with music, wine, and bounteous appetizers (apéro riche, no cost)
- Consult with our Director of Studies
about study programs and training at ISAP
marianne.peier@isapzurich.com (no cost)
- Arrange private appointments
with our analysts for analysis or supervision
(cost varies according to analyst)
To arrange analysis or supervision consult our Directory of Analysts at: www.isapzurich.com
Or write to: counseling.service@isapzurich.com
Kindly make appointments with the Director of Studies, Counseling Service, and individual analysts well ahead of your arrival.

Attendance of the Interlude requires your separate registration and payment.

SPECIAL GUESTS

Patricia Berry, PhD Keynote Speaker, received her doctoral degree in psychology from the University of Dallas, Braniff Graduate School, and her diploma in Analytical Psychology from CGJI-ZH. She has been active in the Jungian world for nearly half a century, serving on faculties and boards of training institutions. She is one of the founders of Archetypal Psychology and is the author of the book, Echo's Subtle Body: A Contribution to Archetypal Psychology. Her recent articles include: "Image in Motion," "Rules of Thumb," and "A Little Light." In 1991 she was the first Scholar in Residence at Pacifica. She lectures internationally and has served as president of both the New England and the Inter-Regional Societies of Jungian Analysts.

Prof. James Hollis, PhD, by now an Odyssey veteran, delivered our keynote address in 2007, and was our special guest speaker in 2012. James was born in Springfield, Illinois, and graduated from Manchester University in 1962 and Drew University in 1967. He taught humanities for 26 years in various colleges and universities before retraining as a Jungian analyst at the CGJI-ZH (1977-82). He is presently a licensed Jungian analyst in private practice in Washington, D.C. He served as Executive Director of the Jung Educational Center in Houston, Texas for many years and now is Executive Director of the Jung Society of Washington. He is a retired Senior Training Analyst for the Inter-Regional Society of Jungian Analysts, was first Director of Training of the Philadelphia Jung Institute, and is Vice-President Emeritus of the Philemon Foundation. Additionally he is a Professor of Jungian Studies for Saybrook University of San Francisco/Houston.

He lives with his wife Jill, an artist and retired therapist, in Washington, DC. Together they have three living children and eight grand-children. He has written over fifty articles and a total of fourteen books, among them, Hauntings: Dispelling the Ghosts Who Run Our Lives (Chiron, 2013) and most recently, Living an Examined Life: Wisdom for the Second Half of the Journey (Sounds True Publ., 2018). The books have been translated into Swedish, Russian, German, Spanish, French, Hungarian, Portuguese, Turkish, Italian, Korean, Finnish, Romanian, Bulgarian, Farsi, Japanese, Greek, Chinese, and Czech.

Robert Ingram, MA is an essentially self-didactic piano player, playing by ear, informed and inspired since early childhood by his immersion in the fertile music of his native southern USA. Also a Jungian analyst, Robert started his training at CGJI-ZH (1998-2003), and graduated from ISAPZURICH (2016), where he successfully defended his thesis, "This Remembering Song: Memory, Music, Melancholy." His MA studies in Psychology and Spirituality at Holy Names University in California (1996) concluded with his thesis, "Memories, Dreams, Reflections on the Blues." In his American past, Robert was also a chaplain and cook (1979-1982), and a forestry manager (1982-1995). Today he resides with his wife and the youngest of his 4 children in Parma, Italy, where he works as a translator and maintains his private analytic practice. During the Interlude at ISAPZURICH in May 2018, Robert will lecture on his thesis topic, "This Remembering Song..."

FACULTY, ISAPZURICH

Peter Ammann, Dr. phil. studied music (cello) and musicology. He later trained at CGJI-ZH and is now a training analyst, supervisor, and lecturer at ISAPZURICH, maintaining his private practice in Zurich and Geneva. He has lectured in South Africa, the UK, Canada, USA, and Taiwan. Peter is moreover an avid documentary filmmaker, having discovered this path in the 1960's, after apprenticing in Rome with Federico Fellini. Peter's documentaries include: Hlonipa: Journey into Wilderness; Sandplay with Dora Kalff; Spirits of the Rocks, and Mabi's Feast—Sangomas Celebrating San. Anticipating the commemoration of Marie-Louise von Franz's 100th birthday in 2015, Peter contributed along with others to produce a new edition of the documentary film by Françoise Selhofer (1982/2015), Marie-Louise von Franz, which now has been released with subtitles and voice-overs in several languages.

Vered Arbit, MA is an expressive art therapist and Jungian analyst trained at ISAPZURICH, graduated in 2014. She worked in Israel in a community art therapy center and in also in private practice. She has extensive experience and expertise in treating post-traumatic and sexually abused women. She teaches and conducts Jungian oriented workshops dealing with treatment of dissociation and trauma, in Israel and Taiwan. Together with Israeli Jungian colleagues she has contributed writings about personal and collective trauma in books published in the last decade.

Katarina Casanova, lic.phil., a clinical psychologist and Jungian analyst, received her diploma in Analytical Psychology from CGJI-ZH in 2001. She works at ISAPZURICH as an analyst, supervisor and lecturer, and conducts her private practice in Zürich. Her main interests are dreams, picture interpretation, theory of complexes, and history of religion. In 2009 she published "The Wild Feminine: Re-connecting to a Powerful Archetypal Image" in Spring Vol. 82, Symbolic Life.

Deborah Egger, MSW is a training and supervising analyst at ISAPZURICH and one of the school's founders. She holds a BA in Religion and Psychology, an MSW in Clinical Social Work, and received her Diploma in Analytical Psychology from the CGJI-ZH in 1990. She teaches regularly on the subjects of transference phenomenon, developmental psychology, attachment theory and its interface with the intersubjective motivational system. Her private practice is in Stäfa and she is currently serving as President of ISAPZURICH. She is a past resident of AGAP and has served on the IAAP Executive Committee. She has two grown children and holds dual American and Swiss citizenship.

Christa Gubler, lic.phil., born 1957, is married, and has one daughter. A training analyst and supervisor at ISAPZURICH, she received her diploma in Analytical Psychology from CGJI-ZH, and began her private analytic and psychotherapeutic practice in 1993. Her practice integrates as well her certified specializations in the areas of clinical sexology, forensic psychology, and systemic therapy with couples and families, for which she trained in Basel, Hamburg, and Montreal.

Prof. Allan Guggenbühl, Dr. phil. received his degree in education and psychology from the University of Zurich and his diploma in Analytical Psychology from CGJI-ZH. He is Director of the Institute for Conflict Management in Bern and is well known in Swiss schools for his method, Mythodrama and Crisis Intervention. Among his publications are: Die vergessene Klugheit: wie Normen uns am Denken hindern (2015); "Silence is Unbearable: Make More Noise!" in JOS Vol. VI, 2014; The Incredible Fascination of Violence (1998); and Men, Power and Myths (1997).

Ann Chai Yi Li, MA majored in Chinese and English Literature at Providence University in Taiwan. She is a graduate of ISAPZURICH and maintains her private analytic practice in Zurich. Her special area of interest is the relationship of Chinese philosophy, Daoist alchemy and Analytical Psychology. She has translated two Jungian works into Chinese: Suzanne Wagner's documentary Mat-ter of Heart with C.G. Jung, Marie-Louise von Franz, et. al., dir. Mark Whitney (1986); and Jungian Psychology Unplugged: My Life as an Elephant (Studies in Jungian Psychology by Jungian Analysts), ed. Daryl Sharp (1998).

Dariane Pictet, AdvDipExPsych, a training analyst with ISAPZURICH, also supervises and lectures with GAP in London. She trained as an Existential Psychotherapist in London and as a Jungian analyst at CGJI-ZH. Realizing her special interest in the embodied psyche, she also completed Marion Woodman's BodySoul leadership training. In recent years Dariane has revived her past life as drama school student, performing with ISAP colleagues in their world-wide theatrical adaptations of Jung's work and writings.

Bernard Sartorius, lic.theol. received his degree in theology from University of Geneva in 1965 and worked for several years as a protestant minister, first in a parish and then in youth work. He graduated from CGJI-ZH in 1974, maintaining his private analytical practice first in Geneva, and since 1997 in Lucerne and Zurich. He is a training analyst and supervisor at ISAPZURICH. Among his publications are his book on the Orthodox Church, L'Eglise orthodoxe, Grandes religions du monde, Vol. 10 (1982); and the essays, "La Mecque où/jou on meurt," in Vouivre, Cahiers de psychologie analytique, Pèlerinages, Numéro 11, 2011; "The Silence of 'God,'" in JOS Vol. VI, 2014; and "Failure is the End," in JOS Vol. VII, 2015.

Andreas Schweizer, Dr. theol. is a practicing Jungian analyst in Zurich. He studied theology and comparative religion in Zurich, as well as Egyptology with Prof. Erik Hornung in Basel. He has been a training analyst since 1986, first at the CGJI-ZH, and currently at ISAPZURICH. For 14 years he was president of the Eranos Conference in Ascona. He is the current president of the Psychology Club Zurich, founded in 1916 by C.G. Jung. He lectures extensively and has published many essays and books, including The Sun God's Journey Through the Netherworld (2010). His essay of the same title appears in JOS Vol. II (2010).

Isabe von Uslar, lic.phil., a clinical psychologist and Jungian analyst, received her diploma in Analytical Psychology from CGJI-ZH in 1996. She is an analyst, supervisor and lecturer at ISAPZURICH and maintains her private practice in Zürich. Her main interests are dreams, imaginative techniques and trance induction, picture interpretation, and theory of complexes.

Joanne Wieland-Burston, PhD is a Jungian analyst who received her diploma from CGJI-ZH in 1981, where she was a Training Analyst from 1991 to 2005. She is currently on the faculty of ISAPZURICH. Joanne has conducted her private analytical practice in Germany since 1988, after having worked for nine years as an analyst in Switzerland. She lectures internationally and has published several books and many articles, among them, Chaos and Order in the World of Psyche (1992/2015), translated from the German, Chaotische Gefühle: Wenn die Seele Ordnung Sucht (Kreuz Verlag, 1989); Contemporary Solitude: The Joy and Pain of Being Alone (1996); and "Grandparents: Between Grandness and Betrayal," in JOS Vol. III, 2011.

Ursula Wirtz, Dr. phil. holds a doctorate in literature and philosophy from the University of Munich, and a degree in clinical and anthropological psychology from the University of Zurich. She graduated from CGJI-ZH in 1982. Today she is academic chair of the Jungian Odyssey Committee, and a lecturer, Training Analyst, and Supervisor at ISAPZURICH, internationally active in teaching and training. Her recently published works in English include her essays: "Yearning to be Known: Individuation and the Broken Wings of Eros," in JOS Vol. I, 2009; "The Symbolic Dimension in Trauma Therapy," in Spring: A Journal of Archetype and Culture, Symbolic Life, Vol. 82, 2009; and "The Power of the Unconscious: Descent into Madness or Spiritual Emergence?" in JOS Vol. II, 2010; and her book, Trauma and Beyond: The Mystery of Transformation, Zürich Lecture Series in Analytical Psychology (2014).

ISAPZURICH The International School of Analytical Psychology Zürich was founded in 2004 by AGAP, the Association of Graduate Analytical Psychologists. AGAP is a Swiss-domiciled professional society founded in 1954. To date its members number nearly 500 worldwide. AGAP is a charter member of the International Association of Analytical Psychology (IAAP), with IAAP training privileges.

On the home turf of the renowned Swiss psychologist C.G. Jung, ISAPZURICH fulfills its main purpose, the post-graduate training of Jungian analysts. We are the only IAAP institute offering full-time training that incorporates each year two fourteen-week semesters of lectures and seminars. In addition we adhere to Jung's interdisciplinary outlook by admitting candidates with advanced degrees in any field of study. Those candidates with advanced degrees in psychology or medicine—and with adequate skills in German, French, or Italian—may qualify to receive a Swiss federal title and cantonal license for the professional practice of psychotherapy. All graduates of the analytic program are eligible to apply for membership in AGAP and the IAAP.

True to the Zürich tradition, ISAP's faculty members, guest instructors, and trainees from around the world enrich the program with their diverse professional and cultural backgrounds. Lectures and seminars are held in English and German, while personal analysis and supervision are conducted in a number of other languages as well.

Community Outreach ISAPZURICH reaches out to a greater community by opening to the general public its regular lectures and special programs such as the Jungian Odyssey, the Zürich Lecture Series, Basic Jung; C.G. Jung Entdecker; and the Märztagung. These and other continuing education programs are designed for general interest, as well as for professionals within and outside of the field of psychology. Our Counseling Service holds confidential, cost-free consultations leading to referrals for analysis, psychotherapy, or counseling, available in a variety of languages and at reasonable rates.

Become a Donor To continue flourishing, ISAPZURICH relies on the support of friends. Donations made through AGAP are exempt from general communal, cantonal, and federal tax in Switzerland. Donors from the United States and Canada may receive tax exemptions through JITZ, the Foundation for Jungian International Training Zurich.
