KEYNOTE SPEAKER

NANCY SWIFT FURLOTTI, PhD is a senior Jungian Analyst living in Aspen, Colorado. She is a past president of the C.G. Jung Institute of Los Angeles, where she trained, and a founding member and past president of the Philemon Foundation, which published C.G. Jung's Red Book. She is a member of the C.G. Jung Institute of Colorado and on the board of Pacifica Graduate Institute. She lectures internationally on Jungian topics such as working with dreams, mythology— especially from Mesoamerica— trauma, and creativity. Her books include: The Dream and its Amplification; Eternal Echoes: Erich Neumann's Timeless Relevance to Consciousness, Creativity, and Evil; and forthcoming, The Splendor of the Maya: A Journey into the Shadows at the Dawn of Creation.

LOURDES ALBARRAN is a Mexican senior Jungian Analyst with a private practice in Mexico City. She completed her training at the C.G. Jung Institute of Colorado in 2010 and is a member, instructor and supervisor with the Institute. Lourdes is a passionate explorer of the symbolic richness of myths and dreams and how to apply their teachings in her analytical practice. Lourdes is excited to share this material with others who are interested in Jungian Psychology and Mexican myths.

JOHN TODD, PhD is a senior Jungian Analyst and Director of Training at the C.G. Jung Institute of Colorado. He is a graduate of the Inter-Regional Society of Jungian Analysts and C.G. Jung Institute of Colorado. He received his doctorate in Depth Psychology from Pacifica Graduate Institute, where he is currently an adjunct professor of Alchemy and Dream Interpretation.

LARA NEWTON is a senior Jungian Analyst in private practice in Denver, Colorado. She is the president of the C.G. Jung Institute of Colorado, and served as its Director of Training for many years. She has been president of the C.G. Jung Society of Colorado for over 25 years. Lara has been deeply involved in Jungian psychology since the early 1970's, and has published one book, Brothers and Sisters: Discovering the Psychology of Companionship, and has written several essays, some of which have been published as well, on various aspects of symbolic literature and experience.
